Chair, Department of Communication, State University of New York at Buffalo, 2002 to 2006.

Visiting Professor, Department of Communication, University of Maryland, College Park, 2006.

Professor & Chair, Department of Communication, University of California, Davis, 2009-2015.

Distinguished Professor, Department of Communication, University of California, Davis, 2015 to date.

Visiting Professor, Department of Scientific and Technological Communication and Policy, University of Science and Technology of China, 2015.

AWARDS AND HONORS

Scholarship to attend Workshop of Multidimensional Scaling, Bell Laboratories and the University of Pennsylvania, June, 1972.

Top three student paper, Theory and Methodology, Association for Education in Journalism, 1974.

James W. Mackham Student Paper Award in International Communication, Association for Education in Journalism, 1975.

Top three paper, Intercultural Communication, International Communication Association, 1977.

Top three paper, Political Communication, International Communication Association, 1977.

Top three paper, Organizational Communication, International Communication Association, 1981.

Top four paper, Information Systems, International Communication Association, 1982.

Top four paper, International and Development Communication, International Communication Association, 1984.

Top four paper, Information Systems, International Communication Association, 1985.

Top four paper, Public Relations, International Communication Association, 1986.

Top paper, International Communication, International Communication Association, 1995.

Top paper, International Communication, International Communication Association, 1998.

Top paper, Conference Theme, International Communication Association, 2006.

Top three Interactive Paper, International Communication Association, 2006.

Top four in Peace and Conflict Communication, National Communication Association, 2007.

Top three Interactive Paper, International Communication Association, 2009.

Aubrey Fisher Mentorship Award, International Communication Association, 2012.
